UNIVERSITÉ DE LILLE 2022

Université européenne de référence, reconnue pour l'excellence de sa recherche et de sa formation, l'Université de Lille place l'étudiant au cœur de ses préoccupations, pour favoriser son implication et sa réussite. La multiplicité et la spécificité de ses diplômes (licences, DEUST, BUT, licences professionnelles, masters, spécialités d'ingénieur, formations de santé), adossés à une recherche de pointe, sont en phase avec les évolutions du monde socio-économique et socio-professionnel afin de contribuer aux grandes transitions de notre société et préparer chacun, tout au long de sa vie, aux métiers de demain.

Dès janvier 2022, l'École Nationale Supérieure des Arts et Industries Textiles (ENSAIT), l'École Supérieure de Journalisme de Lille (ESJ), l'École Nationale Supérieure d'Architecture et de Paysage de Lille (ENSAPL), Sciences Po Lille et l'Université de Lille s'engagent dans la construction d'un nouvel établissement public. Attachés au modèle universitaire et à notre territoire, cette nouvelle entité a choisi de garder la dénomination d'Université de Lille qui désigne donc désormais un périmètre plus étendu avec des écoles. Cet ambitieux projet de service public proposera au plus grand nombre, d'étudier, d'innover par l'expérimentation et la recherche, de travailler et faire carrière, dans les meilleures conditions, au sein d'infrastructures et de campus propices au bien-être et à l'épanouissement.

LA FACULTÉ DES HUMANITÉS

The Faculty of Humanities train close to 7000 students in diverse fields of study such as archeology, arts, history and history of art, modern literature, classics, philosophy and language science.

The Faculty is comprised of seven formation departments, five research labs and several libraries.

Within the Faculty, the Philosophy Department offers to students complete philosophical training courses :

Bachelor's degree :

- Philosophy,
- Philosophy-sociology,

Master's degree :

- Arts, Ethic Policy and Society,
- Contemporary Philosophy,
- Philosophy, Knowledge, Rationalities.

The department also train for the aggregation of philosophy and takes part in courses of the master « Métiers de l'enseignement, de l'Education et de la Formation » (Teaching, Education and Formation Professions) in collaboration with the INSPE (National Higher Institute of Teaching and Education).

The Department of Philosophy is composed of a teaching team of 16 incumbent teachers/researchers along with several part time or contracted teachers, as well as a two persons administrative and technical team.

Training courses in the Department are supported by the UMR STL (Knowledge, Texts, Language research lab), in which most of the teachers/researchers in philosophy develop their research activities.
